

Hourly Consultations

Service includes:

Targeted Safety & Security Consulting

Get direct, expert advice on specific security or safety concerns. This service is ideal for clients needing quick insights or validation on particular challenges.

Specific Issue Discussion & Advice

Dedicated time to discuss pressing safety or security issues. Our consultants provide tailored recommendations and best practices to address your unique situation.

Initial Risk Identification

A focused session to identify potential vulnerabilities and threats within a specific area of your operations, offering preliminary insights into areas requiring attention.

Policy & Procedure Clarification

Review and discuss your existing safety and security policies or procedures. We provide guidance on interpretation, effectiveness, and alignment with industry standards.

Customized Question & Answer Sessions

An open forum to address your team's specific questions regarding safety protocols, security concerns, or emergency preparedness, ensuring clarity and understanding.

At Guardian Shield Solutions, we take a personalized approach by carefully evaluating each client's specific needs and situation to provide a proposal designed to meet their goals effectively. Contact us today to schedule your consultation and discover how we can help strengthen your safety and security plan.